

Inside the Presidents' Cabinet™

Via The Presidential Culinary Museum®

CONFIDENTIAL

Unique items to showcase on television

Not previously presented to any studio worldwide

Not previously presented to any network worldwide

“I can see why a television studio or producer on a network would be interested in this amazing project. Obviously, if I were working TV projects, Marti, this would be extremely profitable.”

Kathleen Kennedy
Kennedy & Marshall

- I. Showcasing the most prolific American Presidential China collection in America. Official White House State Dinner China is considered to be a very rare and historic collectible, as it is nearly impossible to obtain.
- II. These are the real items that were eaten off of, sauced and having pits/bones taken out of the mouths of Kings, Emperors and Queens by their very own hands and put down onto these plates. They are authenticated and known as the most expansive, amazing and verified collection on earth.

III. James Madison, Abraham Lincoln, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, Benjamin Harrison, Harry S. Truman, Ronald Reagan, Bill Clinton, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Ulysses S. Grant, James Monroe, John Quincy Adams, James K. Polk, Andrew Jackson, Rutherford B. Hayes, Woodrow Wilson, James Buchanan, Franklin Pierce, Lyndon Johnson, Jimmy Carter, USS Williamsburg Service Plate, Air Force One Official Presidential Forward Cabin China. Also in the collection are pieces from Air Force 1, as well as from two Presidential Yachts - The U.S.S. Williamsburg and the Honey Fitz. Below, left to right, a Dessert plate of James Monroe, a Dessert plate of James K. Polk and a Dessert plate of Abraham Lincoln.

IV. First Lady Caroline Scott Harrison, an accomplished painter of china herself, began preserving and inventorying the present collection of White House China, which is now on display at The White House. She shall be featured in series I, II and III on TV.

V. In earlier White House days, Presidents, such as Chester Arthur, would hold auctions on The White House lawn - hard for us to comprehend today - Where historic pieces that were no longer in use, or met with President Chester Arthur's "standards", were auctioned to the public. He will be featured in series I and II.

- VI. Other extremely rare memorabilia will also be shown on TV for the first time in history.
- VII. This is the single largest, private collection of rare White House china in the world and has never been showcased on earth. Its value has been estimated at over 30m. Current and private verification/consulting is conducted with The White House Curator, William Allman. No television production company has ever before shown this private collection. The collection is currently, fully warehoused in a bio-metric, access controlled facility complete with armed security officers and weaponized patrols. The location is code-marked, falsified on the internet and remains physically, actually - undisclosed to the public.